Description

A good and large Striking Wall clock 50 inches tall. The double weighted movement of 8 day duration, striking the hours on a gong giving a pleasant strike. As can be seen in the illustrations the case is a well grained walnut with ebonised detail giving a very light appearance rather than the darker mahogany versions. This Clock is a rare survivor of 150 years complete with all its original finials and components, and has obviously been well loved and maintained by its previous custodian, and comes in working order.
