Description

Antique 20th century walnut chest of drawers by Jas Shoolbred, a handsome and beautifully proportioned piece displaying excellent quality and attention to detail throughout. Very well made and of fine quality, this attractive chest combines generous storage with timeless styling, making it a practical and desirable addition to a bedroom, hallway or living space. The chest is fitted with six drawers in total, arranged as three smaller drawers across the upper section with three larger drawers beneath. This versatile arrangement provides excellent storage for a variety of clothing, linens and household essentials. Each drawer retains its original decorative brass handles, adding further character and complementing the rich tones of the walnut. The walnut displays gorgeous natural grain and a rich, warm colour throughout, giving the chest plenty of depth and visual appeal. Raised on a sturdy plinth base, it has a substantial and well-balanced appearance, while its pleasing proportions and quality construction further demonstrate the fine standard of the piece. A very desirable example of 20th century furniture, this handsome walnut chest of drawers is both decorative and ...
