Description

Super quality and very decorative mantle clock by Samuel Marti of Paris, circa 1890. This is a good size mantle clock, shown on a pier cabinet for a perspective. The 8 day movement runs very well, keeping accurate time and also have a very gentle "gong." Rich mahogany and decorated with brass mounts, original white enameled dial and a domed glass with brass bezel. The rear of the clock has a glass panel, showing the working mechanism and further brass inlay to the inside of the door. Great clock, the size it is will stand on a much wider piece of furniture if not placing it on a deep mantle. Measurements: 14 1/2 inches or 37 cm high 9 3/4 inches or 25 cm wide 5 1/2 inches or 14 cm deep
