Description

A superb large oak mule chest, 18th century in date, with an ogee-topped, raised fielded panelled front and three lower drawers, all finished with well-matched antique brass handles. The front sits on stile feet with a shaped, scalloped plinth. Inside the main chest is a covered candle box, above by two smaller internal drawers - ideal for storing smaller valuables. Condition Report Excellent solid condition. Handles and hinges are sympathetic antique replacements. Light wear and age-related marks as expected. The photographs form part of the condition report, so please review them carefully. Further images or a video viewing can be provided on request. Viewings are welcome at our Southampton unit, strictly by appointment. If you have any questions regarding this piece, please don't hesitate to get in touch.
