Description

An early 20th-century architectural study plate depicting the Corinthian Order from the Choragic Monument of Lysicrates, Athens. The print illustrates proportional and decorative detail, presented in an ebonised frame with reeded and gilt accents. The top right corner bears a stamp from the Croydon School of Art, providing context and dates the plate to the early 20th century. A precise and academic piece, well suited to a more structured interior setting. Condition Report: In excellent antique condition. Minor marks to the plate and light wear to the frame, including small chips to the edges. The photographs form part of the condition report, so please review them carefully. Further images or a video viewing can be provided on request. Viewings are welcome at our Southampton unit, strictly by appointment. If you have any questions regarding this piece, please don't hesitate to get in touch.
