Description

A Victorian cold-painted cast-steel Royal Coat of Arms of the United Kingdom, featuring the Imperial State Crown. The form and crown indicate a pre-1901 example, before the modern version of the Royal Arms was introduced. An interesting decorative piece with clear institutional and historic character, suitable for wall display or as part of a larger collection. Condition Report In excellent antique "as found" condition. The piece has been given a light dust only. It appears to have originally had mounting pins to the reverse, although these are now absent. The photographs form part of the condition report, so please review them carefully. Further images or a video viewing can be provided on request. Viewings are welcome at our Southampton unit, strictly by appointment. If you have any questions regarding this piece, please don't hesitate to get in touch.
