Description

An early 19th-century oak flour or grain bin of coopered barrel form, bound with shaped wooden bands. The oak has developed a well-aged patination, and the interior remains notably clean. A practical countryhouse form, originally intended for kitchen or pantry use, and now equally suited to storage or decorative placement. Condition Report. In excellent antique condition. The photographs form part of the condition report, so please review them carefully. Further images or a video viewing can be provided on request. Viewings are welcome at our Southampton unit, strictly by appointment. If you have any questions regarding this piece, please don't hesitate to get in touch.
