Description

A fine early 20th-century glazed double bookcase of substantial construction, with slight Art Deco influence in the stepped outer stiles and arched lower supports. Each glazed section contains two adjustable shelves behind single-pane glazed doors, with working locks and applied arcaded geometric moulding to the upper section. The bookcase is finished with a high-quality panelled back. A useful, generously proportioned bookcase for a study, library or sitting room. Condition Report In good antique condition with minor marks commensurate with age and use. There are a few small chips to the top of the left stile. The lock to the right-hand door is a replacement and, while functional, can be slightly stiff. The photographs form part of the condition report, so please review them carefully. Further images or a video viewing can be provided on request. Viewings are welcome at our Southampton unit, strictly by appointment. If you have any questions regarding this piece, please don't hesitate to get in touch.
