Description

A fine carved oak panel, likely dating from the 16th or 17th century, featuring a central winged cherub or mask surrounded by scrolling foliage and cartouche decoration. The panel would originally have formed part of a larger piece of furniture or architectural interior, and retains the character of its earlier setting. Condition Report In excellent antique condition and ready to hang. The photographs form part of the condition report, so please review them carefully. Further images or a video viewing can be provided on request. Viewings are welcome at our Southampton unit, strictly by appointment. If you have any questions regarding this piece, please don't hesitate to get in touch.
