Description

Superb large painted pine and oak bank of twelve drawers c.1910. Solid oak top with cleated sides and a moulded edge all round. Over twelve drawers (internal dimensions 58cm x 48.5 cm x 8cm) ideal for stationery, artists materials, collections, accessories etc. Pine drawer fronts with original 'scumbled' paintwork to resemble oak and retaining the original brass handles. Simple moulded detail between the drawers, chamfered edges to the frame, panelled sides and rear and a slim moulded plinth (continued at the rear). Original paintwork all round. With a French maker's stamp to the underside of one of the drawers. Some typical old wear, generally very good condition, solid and sturdy, cleaned and waxed in our workshops. Width: 55" (139.5 cm) Height: 34" (86.5 cm) Depth: 24" (61 cm)

Internal Ref: 38643
