Description

A quietly elegant 19th-century prayer stool, likely from an ecclesiastical setting, in what appears to be walnut. The stool features classic through-wedged mortice and tenon joinery, with shaped stiles and honest construction. A tactile, unpretentious piece with great warmth. Condition Report In excellent structural and aesthetic condition, with light surface wear in keeping with age. The photographs form part of the condition report, so please review them carefully. Further images or a video viewing can be provided on request. Viewings are welcome at our Southampton unit, strictly by appointment. If you have any questions regarding this piece, please don't hesitate to get in touch.
