Description

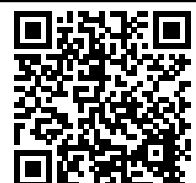

A fine early 20th-century solid oak side table in the Liberty style, showcasing the confident lines and organic form typical of the Art Nouveau movement. The rich, honey-toned oak brings warmth and depth to the piece, while the top is supported by four striking stylised legs with arrowhead relief detail, each terminating in elegant double-arched feet. A lower shelf offers additional practicality, making this a versatile piece for any interior. Condition Report In excellent antique condition. The top has a very slight warp to one end - barely noticeable and entirely stable. A few light stains and minor water marks to the top and lower shelf, all consistent with the age of the piece and contributing to its honest charm. The photographs form part of the condition report, so please review them carefully. Further images or a video viewing can be provided on request. Viewings are welcome at our Southampton unit, strictly by appointment. If you have any questions regarding this piece, please don't hesitate to get in touch.
