Description

"An elaborate early 20th-century walnut side table, likely Edwardian, featuring a shaped upper and lower tier with a well-scalloped outline. The table stands on four square cabriole legs, with a serpentine apron lightly carved with acanthus detailing. The tops of the legs are further enhanced with applied mouldings reminiscent of classical swags. The quality of both timber and execution is immediately apparent, making this a decorative yet practical occasional table. Condition Report In excellent antique condition, with minor surface wear commensurate with age. Structurally sound and well preserved. The photographs form part of the condition report, so please review them carefully. Further images or a video viewing can be provided on request. Viewings are welcome at our Southampton unit, strictly by appointment. If you have any questions regarding this piece, please don't hesitate to get in touch."
