Description

"An early 20th-century Japanese Imari porcelain bowl with a scalloped rim and finely hand-painted chrysanthemum and floral decoration in iron red, cobalt blue, and white. The underside bears the Kiku (菊) mark of the Kajiware Kikusaburo (加賀屋菊三郎) kiln, dating the bowl to the late Meiji or Taishō period (c. 1868–1926). A well-executed example, equally suited to display or practical decorative use. Condition Report In excellent condition with no chips or cracks. The photographs form part of the condition report, so please review them carefully. Further images or a video viewing can be provided on request. Viewings are welcome at our Southampton unit, strictly by appointment. If you have any questions regarding this piece, please don't hesitate to get in touch."
