Description

A late Victorian or early Edwardian mahogany chest of drawers, with two short drawers above two full-width drawers, each fitted with cast brass pulls. The sides are panelled and the chest stands on a simple plinth base. A straightforward example of the period, with useful proportions for a bedroom or dressing room. Condition Report In excellent clean condition, ready for use, with minor marks commensurate with age. The back looks like it may have either lost a single slat, or had a previous repair that is missing, but the back is absolutely solid. The photographs form part of the condition report, so please review them carefully. Further images or a video viewing can be provided on request. Viewings are welcome at our Southampton unit, strictly by appointment. If you have any questions regarding this piece, please don't hesitate to get in touch.
