Description

Antique 20th century small Edwardian side table in oak, a lovely example with an understated design that allows the character of the timber to take centre stage. Well made and of good quality, its compact proportions make it an easy piece to place around the home. Four sturdy legs form the base, with a useful lower shelf providing additional space for books, ornaments or other items. The top is particularly attractive, displaying a lovely natural grain that adds plenty of interest and individuality. Gorgeous grain and colour continue throughout the oak, giving the piece a warm and inviting appearance. Its small size, practical layout and classic Edwardian influence make it a very desirable example. In good condition, this charming piece offers an appealing combination of simplicity, practicality and period character, perfect for a variety of interiors.
