Description

Antique 19th century Victorian cabinet in mahogany, an attractive period piece with a simple yet elegant design and plenty of traditional character. Well made and of good quality, its pleasing proportions give it a versatile appearance that would work well in a variety of settings. The lower section incorporates a useful single drawer fitted with a knob handle, offering convenient additional storage. Beautifully turned legs support the piece, with castors beneath adding an authentic finishing detail and allowing for easier movement when required. Rich colour and gorgeous grain run throughout the mahogany, giving the cabinet a warm and inviting appearance. The restrained design allows the beauty of the timber and classic Victorian form to stand out. A very desirable example in good condition, ideal for bringing a touch of 19th century character and elegance into any home.
