Description

Vintage 20th century farmhouse sideboard in pine, a beautifully presented and substantial piece with plenty of traditional country character. Very well made and of good quality, its generous proportions provide an excellent amount of storage while retaining a warm and inviting appearance. The upper section consists of three useful drawers, with a triple-door cupboard below offering plenty of concealed storage for crockery, linens and other household essentials. All of the original knob handles remain in place, adding to the authentic charm of the piece, while the sturdy plinth base completes its classic farmhouse design. The pine displays gorgeous natural grain and colour throughout, giving the sideboard a wonderfully warm appearance and plenty of individuality. Its simple country styling and practical layout make it a very desirable and versatile example. In good condition, this characterful farmhouse sideboard offers an appealing combination of generous storage, traditional charm and everyday practicality, making it a perfect addition to any home.
