Description

Vintage 20th century good quality joint oak stool, a simple yet beautifully made piece with a timeless design and plenty of natural character. Well made and of good quality, its traditional construction and clean proportions give it an appealing simplicity. The stool stands on sturdy square legs united by supporting stretchers, creating a strong and well-balanced frame. Free from unnecessary decoration, the design allows the beauty of the oak and its traditional form to take centre stage. Gorgeous grain and colour can be seen throughout, with warm tones and natural variations giving the piece its individual charm. Its versatile size makes it equally useful as occasional seating, a small stand or simply as a decorative feature. In good condition and very desirable, this lovely oak stool proves that sometimes the simplest pieces can be the most appealing. Product Reference : AF - 6337
