Description

A beautifully made George III Silver PASTERNAK HOOF Caddy spoon hallmarked for Birmingham 1808 by renowned makers COCKS & BETTRIDGE. The Pasternak Hoof, so named because of its resemblance to the lower leg of a horse, was a trademark caddy spoon design for makers Cocks & Bettridge. Very attractively shaped bowl with pierced gallery around the outer rim and fabulous bright-cut engraving. The handle is also beautifully engraved and bears initials. Measuring 7 cm high, the bowl measures approximately 4 cm x 3.7 cm and it weighs 7 grams. In very good antique condition, hallmarks are very good. Showing slight signs of wear commensurate of age and use. A beautiful piece of collectable Georgian silver.
