Description

This fabulous 19th century French cupboard has a wealth of 3-dimensional detail and is superbly carved with hunting references. The top separates from the bottom so that is easier to move and it has plenty of cupboard and shelf space. It will look wonderful in a country house hunting environment, or even in a library, where the top section might be used for books. - Three dimensional carvings of dogs, ducks, game birds, oak leaves, acorns and hunting horns. - Engraved patterned carvings on the side panels. - Glazed top cupboard with 2 adjustable shelves on saw tooth supports. - Removable shelf in bottom cupboard. - French iron door latches, with keys for both sections. - Two drawers above bottom cupboard. - Bun feet. - Cornice top. In good condition showing wear consistent with age and use. Date: Circa 1870 Material: Oak Origin: France Height – 226 cm Width – 140 cm Depth – 59 cm
