Description

Quality antique Victorian inlaid rosewood marquetry writing desk with the top section having an attractive arched shaped inlaid top, fitted mirror to the centre with original shelf and flanked by two glazed doors both with the original brass handles which open to reveal a glass shelf and mirrored backs. The base boasts a green leather writing surface crossbanded in rosewood above one long drawer and two short drawers all with outstanding marquetry inlay and original brass knobs. It is raised on four turned and shaped tapering legs with original brass cup castors and united by an H shaped stretcher with a pretty marquetry inlaid panel. The exquisite craftsmanship, fine detail and quality of this beautiful desk makes it very appealing, it is of extremely elegant proportions and in wonderful original condition.
