Description

Artist: Unidentified School: British School / Pre-Raphaelite interest Subject: Paolo and Francesca / Dante's Inferno Medium: Mixed media / wash and drawn line on paper Type: Original artwork – not a reproduction Approx. artwork size: 22.5 × 16.5 cm Date: Believed 19th century, exact date unknown Attribution: Unattributed An unusual and evocative original interpretation of one of the great subjects of nineteenth-century British art, worthy of further research. Condition report: The artwork has considerable age and is presented on its old backing/mount. There is general age-related wear, surface variation, marks and discolouration consistent with an antique work on paper. Please examine all photographs carefully as these form an important part of the description. Size of artwork incl. frame 42 x 35 cm (mount aperture approx. 22 x 17 cm) "Paolo & Francesca – Dante" Pre-Raphaelite Interest The subject of Paolo and Francesca was particularly important to Dante Gabriel Rossetti (1828–1882), who produced a number of drawings and watercolours inspired by the lovers. Rossetti experimented with the composition over a number of years. Recorded preparatory works incl...
