Description

Antique 20th century good quality pedestal desk in oak, a handsome and substantial piece combining impressive traditional styling with excellent practicality. Well made and of good quality, this attractive desk offers a generous workspace together with ample storage. The desk features seven drawers in total, with three drawers across the upper section and four arranged within the lower pedestals. A striking red writing surface provides an attractive contrast against the warm oak, while the edges of the top are beautifully carved, adding further decorative detail. Raised on elegant cabriole legs terminating in traditional claw and ball feet, the desk has a distinctive and well-balanced appearance. The oak displays gorgeous natural grain and a rich, warm colour throughout, complementing the carved detailing and classic design. Presented in good condition, this very desirable oak pedestal desk would make a perfect addition to any home.
