Description

Antique 20th century small chest of drawers in yew wood, made in England by Reprodex, a charming and beautifully designed piece offering generous storage within desirable compact proportions. Well made and of good quality, its distinctive arrangement of drawers gives it plenty of character and practicality. The upper section features two smaller drawers and three larger drawers, while the lower section incorporates a further two smaller drawers and one large drawer. All are finished with decorative brass handles, adding an attractive traditional detail to the design. The top is beautifully crossbanded, providing a subtle decorative contrast. The yew wood displays gorgeous natural grain and a rich, warm colour throughout, with attractive figuring adding further visual appeal. Its distinctive configuration and useful smaller size make it a very desirable and versatile example. In good condition and full of character, this attractive Reprodex chest of drawers would make a perfect addition to any home.
