Description

Antique 18th century Georgian set of six mahogany dining chairs, a beautifully proportioned matching set displaying the elegant and understated character associated with Georgian furniture. Consisting of six single chairs, they are very well made and of good quality, with a timeless appearance that would sit beautifully around a period dining table. Each chair features a finely carved back, adding an attractive decorative element while retaining the refined simplicity of the design. The removable drop-in seats are upholstered in a light green coloured fabric, providing a subtle contrast against the rich tones of the mahogany. Square legs united by supporting stretchers give the chairs a strong and well-balanced stance. The mahogany displays gorgeous natural grain and a rich, warm colour throughout, giving the set plenty of character and visual appeal. All six chairs have solid frames with no unwanted movement, making them ready for continued use. Presented in good condition, this very desirable and well-made set of Georgian dining chairs would make a perfect addition to any home.
