Description

A recent find, we have a lovely set of 4 English oak dining chairs with the option of reupholstery of the seats if you wish. This set sits well with a good look - the front legs are particularly pleasing on the eye and the oak is a good colour. As mentioned our upholsterer would be able to offer upholstery of the seats at a cost of £200 plus VAT for the set and you would require 2 metres of fabric which we are able to assist in sourcing samples etc or please feel free to locate your own - please mention when you place the order. All the chairs are showing some pleasing historic knocks and bumps with the green short cut strie velvet tired. We have lightly beeswaxed the chairs to ensure they are ready for use. A rather good looking set of fine quality solid oak dining chairs early 1930s.
