Description

Victorian Mahogany Wardrobe A handsome Victorian mahogany double wardrobe, dating from the mid-19th century, with beautifully figured panelled doors and rounded corners. The doors open to reveal two generous hanging compartments, each fitted with a brass hanging rail, together with three useful lower drawers. A very attractive, practical antique wardrobe with a lovely warm colour and figuring throughout. Separates into two main sections for ease of transport and installation. Good antique condition with age-related marks and wear. We can arrange delivery through out the UK
