Description

A stunning late Victorian antique silver model of a woodcock. Possibly made in Hannau imported in 1901 by Berthold Muller, hallmarked as 925 silver in London. It is beautifully cast and hand finished with amazing attention to detail, each feather is etched to enhance the look. The bird is in excellent condition with no damage or repairs. This is one of the most beautiful silver birds that I have had. Its wings are extended and it sits on two well fashioned feet. Weight; 500 grams or 16 ozst. Free delivery in the UK. Payment by bank transfer, card over the phone, PayPal or Klarna. Using Klarna payments can be split over three months.
