Description

A superb Sheraton Revival mahogany display cabinet, showcasing elegant proportions and exquisite decorative detailing. The cabinet stands upon graceful tapered legs terminating in spade feet, with a useful fitted undertier adding both practicality and visual appeal. The cabinet features two working glazed doors, each enhanced with finely detailed astragal mouldings, opening to reveal a spacious display interior. The central section is particularly attractive, being of bow-glass form and creating an elegant focal point. The cabinet is beautifully decorated with delicate marquetry inlays depicting graceful swags and scrolling foliage, while the whole is further enhanced with fine boxwood line inlays, characteristic of the refined Sheraton Revival style. Presented in good condition, this is a highly decorative and elegant display cabinet, ideal for showcasing treasured china, glassware or objets d'art while adding a sophisticated period presence to any interior. Size: Height 74 1/2" (190cm) Width 48" (122cm) Depth 15" (38cm) Height with out upstand 63" (160cm)
