Description

Stunning late 18th century French gilt mirror in superb condition. It dates from around 1780. It has its magnificent real gilt on gesso frame with ornate shell and floral crest with no chips. It has its lovely original mercury glass with no scratches. Mercury glass was not made after 1840 and gives an incomparable sparkle. It was the glass used in all the Palace of Versailles mirrors. It has all its original backboards. Perfect freestanding leaner mirror for any room or wonderful overmantel.
