Description

This exquisite antique ring, dating to Chester 1898 and crafted in 18ct yellow gold, showcases vibrant, well-matched sapphires totalling approximately 0.63ct; each sapphire is encircled by a halo of twenty-four diamonds in open-back claw settings. This ring features an intricately pierced gallery that curves beautifully around the finger and sits low, making it practical for daily wear. STONES Blue Sapphire (0.63ct) Diamond (0.48ct approx) METAL 18ct Yellow Gold RING SIZE UK- P / US - 7.75 MEASUREMENTS The face of the ring measures 1.7cm across by 8.8mm width Centre blue sapphire measures 4mm x 4mm WEIGHT 4.42 grams HALLMARKS 18 (worn), Chester, Date letter P (1898) CONDITION This stunning antique sapphire and diamond ring remains in very good condition. The gold is bright, and the stones remain secure; however, some do have small nibbles and light grazing under a jewellers loupe. Overall, it is a beautiful find that will add sparkle and charm to your finger! Item Number- SD1089
