Description

An early 20th century Post-impressionist oil painting on canvas, of a still life featuring a tabletop arrangement with a stoppered wine bottle with a dish with fruit to the left and a red bowl on a cloth with a knife resting upon it to the right, in a giltwood swept frame, 18" by 23½". Probably French, circa 1900. Condition: Excellent, the painting is in very good condition with no damage or repairs, the canvas is in excellent original condition, the paint is in excellent condition with no loss, the frame, which appears to be the original, is in very good condition with no losses or damage. Overall this is a charming painting redolent of the work of Paul Cezanne.
