

SA1231814

Exemplary Pair of 19th Century Rosewood and Marquetry Bedside Chests c. 1890

Price

GBP 1,250

| USD $1,704 | EUR 1,459

Item Reference: SA1231814

Date of manufacture: 19th Century

Description

An exemplary and true pair of Victorian rosewood bedside cabinets in absolutely superb original condition. . The rosewood of the most beautiful grain and colour and the cabinet work of the highest quality. . The doors and tops inlaid with exquisite floral marquetry in harewood, ebony, walnut, satinwood, holly and what appears to be bog oak. . These bedside cabinets have always been well cared for. The fielded panel doors open and close smoothly on original hinges and with original thumb turn latches. The inner shelves are removable. . It is rare to find a true pair of 19th century bedside chests in such excellent original condition. Many that are advertised as pairs of antique bedside cabinets are actually converted from the pedestals of sideboards with later tops added. . Condition: exceptionally fine, no worm or damage and only the smallest number of tiny knocks and scuffs. One internal shelf is later. . From a private home and with removable shaped glass tops which have been made for these chests and will protect the tops from damage and marks. . Strongly recommended - in exemplary original condition and truly beautiful. . Dimensions are: . 28.5 inches high...

Seller Details

Webberley Antiques

East Sussex United Kingdom By appointment only.

Tel: 07765 233266

International Tel: +44 7765 233266