Description

MEZZOTINT PORTRAIT OF DIANA VISCOUNTESS CROSBIE ENGRAVED BY W DICKINSON AND WATSON AFTER SIR JOSHUA REYNOLDS. Fine mezzotint portrait depicting Diana full-length, standing outdoors under a cloudy sky. She is posed dynamically, holding her voluminous dress with her right hand while her left hand is extended, holding a string or chain. Her expression is described as mirthful and far from the demure expectation for a society lady of the era, conveying an air of informality and spontaneity. Viscountess Crosbie wears a light coloured silk gown, and its material is gathered in a style reflective of the trend toward naturalism in the late 1700s. The background landscape is populated with trees, including a prominent birch to the left, and a more open, and a hilly landscape in the distance. The portrait in its entirety reflects the type of "fashionable negligence" popular at the time, which is a departure from the rigid formality of previous decades. Date: Sept 20th 1769 Sheet Dimensions: 63cm x 53cm. Framed Dimensions: 70cm x 60cm. Price: £720 All prices include UK mainland delivery. For other territories please ask.
