Description

A beautifully made three-tier Victorian corner whatnot in mahogany, with an elegant serpentine front and barley twist front supports capped with finials. The rear support is turned, and the legs terminate on an inverted cup on turned ball foot. The barley twists are especially fine and dense, suggesting the use of a dark hardwood like rosewood or ebony. Condition Report In excellent condition with minor surface wear consistent with age. The photographs form part of the condition report, so please review them carefully. Further images or a video viewing can be provided on request.
