Description

Originating from Czech Republic this Art Deco vase not has kerb side appeal with it's very distinctive green colouring with jet black enamel accents but is a great size standing just over 18 cm and very heavy, you can definitely feel the quality in this one. Condition is excellent, I couldn't find any damage or flaws to note. Typical of Palda glass, this vase has the iconic reverse etched stylized floral accents. Fabulous round shape, will hold a good amount of flowers if you want to use it as well as display it. The enamel is crisp and free from any oxidation often found of enamel from the 30's, this is a white cloudy affect like a film over the enamelling that can be found. A genuinely beautiful vase that won't disappoint. This particular piece has come from a personal collection of over 30 years of Art Deco glass and in particular Karl Palda, please see other listings to see similar. This is the last of three vases I am listing from this private collection. The most common color of uranium glass is pale yellowish-green, which in the 1930s led to the nickname "Vaseline glass" based on a perceived resemblance to the appearance (which was a yellow-green colour) of Vaseline...
