Description

RETIREMENT SALE. 50% DISCOUNT. WAS £1000. NOW £495. Antique Industrial Wicker Traveling Trunk with Internal Linen Tray by J. Jackson Overview An exceptional and rare late Victorian / early Edwardian woven wicker traveling trunk, dating to circa 1895–1915. Hand-crafted in the historic textile heartland of West Yorkshire, England, this heavy-duty industrial chest retains its highly sought-after original internal lift-out linen tray and its bold, crisp manufacturer's stamp. Equal parts practical storage and striking decorative statement, this piece is a beautiful example of British industrial heritage that functions perfectly in a modern interior as a unique blanket chest, laundry trunk, or rustic coffee table. It is much more robust than the average trunk having heavy metal rods and bindings to the top and sides Historical Provenance The interior of the lid features a wonderfully preserved, vivid blue oval maker's stamp reading: "J. Jackson, Basket, Skip & Hamper Maker, 37 George Street, Leeds Road, Bradford." The exterior is further enhanced by hand-painted black stenciled initials ("R.H / BR"), providing authentic industrial character from its days moving textiles through ...
