Description

Antique Renaissance Revival Faience Vase with Bronze Mounts c.1900 Brief Description: This is a magnificent and highly decorative antique Renaissance Revival faience vase, beautifully embellished with elaborate bronze or bronzed-metal mounts. Dating to the late 19th to early 20th century, circa 1880–1910, this impressive Continental piece stands at a substantial 39.3 cm (15.5 inches) tall and takes its inspiration from the richly decorated Italian Renaissance ceramics of the 16th century. The baluster-shaped faience body is beautifully decorated in a traditional palette of cobalt blue, creamy white and rich yellow, with intricate scrolling foliage, grotesque ornament and classical Renaissance-inspired motifs. Taking centre stage is a large circular medallion containing a classical female figure within a landscape, surrounded by concentric decorative borders. Further painted masks, figures and scrolling ornament continue around the body, giving the vase tremendous visual interest. The ceramic body is complemented wonderfully by its elaborate bronze or bronzed-metal mounts. To either side are tall scrolling handles terminating in finely modelled classical female masks...
