Description

This is a pretty pair of tiered wall lights with multi faceted, cut crystal drops in excellent condition dating from around 1920. These have cut crystal swags of octagonal beads hanging in suspension to the front of the silver metal frames. The lights take a standard small bayonet candle bulb and are wired and earthed ready to be professionally installed. The lamps measure 24 cms high by 20 cms wide by 11 cms deep. UK insured packing and delivery is £15
