Description

Beautiful Matched Pair Royal Doulton Lambeth Art Nouveau Stoneware Vases Brief Description: This is a beautiful and highly decorative matched pair of Royal Doulton Lambeth Art Nouveau stoneware vases, dating to circa 1900. A particularly attractive pair, each vase has an elegant tall baluster form, with a gently flared foot rising through a slender waist to a rounded shoulder and broad everted rim. The bodies are finished in a wonderfully subtle mottled olive-green glaze, displaying the attractive tonal variations for which Doulton's Lambeth stoneware became so admired. Each vase is embellished with striking raised stylised floral motifs, very much in keeping with the emerging Art Nouveau taste of the period. The elongated stems and leaves rise vertically through the body, beautifully complementing the tall, sinuous form of the vases. Further decoration appears around the lower sections, where a series of small applied circular motifs in contrasting dark blue and cream glazes provide an attractive accent against the muted green ground. The combination of the organic form, naturalistic decoration and subdued earthy colouring gives the pair a wonderfully distinctive ...
