Description

Great looking pair of English oak reclining armchairs with attractive newly caned sides, turned arms, well endowed frames and new deep piped cushions in a Braemar wool herringbone fabric in burnt clementine shade. These not only look good but are also comfortable to sit in. Condition is good - the frames are tight, weighty with historic day to day wear but nothing fresh. We have lightly waxed the frames and ensured the chairs are ready for placing. They can be reclined by way of moving/removing the dowel at the rear of the seats, an easy task. A handsome pair of oak armchairs English C1920. Dimensions Overall: Height 90cm to Cushion Top x Width 72cm x Depth 88cm and 105 when fully reclined Seats: Height 36cm to Cushion Top x Width 58cm x Depth 54cm When purchasing from us we include delivery in the purchase price which is based on a one person delivery for England and Wales.
