Description

Victorian two-seater country house sofa, crafted in England Circa 1900. A mix of refined period style and classic comfort. It features a deep, low-slung profile, drop-rolled arms, and a traditional drop-arm mechanism on one side that easily transforms the sofa into a relaxing daybed. The exterior is fully reupholstered in a tapestry fabric, showcasing a William Morris-style botanical design in sage green, muted rust, and soft blue tones, all accentuated by elegant rope piping. The sofa stands on robust, ring-turned walnut front legs equipped with their original polished brass castors all round for easy mobility and strong support. Size : L 160cm D 85cm H 75cm Stock No : SG-SOF318
