Description

This is an antique fold-over bridge table. An English, golden walnut game or card table, dating to the Georgian period, circa 1780. Exquisite and fascinating, offering a real treat for the study or lounge. Displays a desirable aged patina and in good order throughout. Quality walnut stocks presented in delightful warm biscuit hue. Beautifully figured throughout with fine grain interest. Fold over top dressed with a striking green baize playing surface. Castellated corners offer a quartet of trays for holding whisky tumblers or game counters. When folded, the top presents a striking bookmatched figuring for elegant room presence. Of superior folding form, offering superb articulation for storage. Push button release to the rear edge actuates the folding rear legs. Once unfolded, the legs held securely with a sliding brace, with a storage tray situated beneath. Superb ball and claw front feet rest below floral relief carved knees upon the long cabriole legs. Rear legs terminate elegantly with fine pad feet. This is an exceptional antique fold-over bridge table, with a superb visual appearance and crafted from quality stocks. Usefully storing away when not in use, its presence as a ...
