Description

This is a large antique buffet. A Scottish, carved oak server or sideboard with Gothic revival taste, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1900. Classic, generously proportioned buffet with ornate carved decorations. Displays a desirable aged patina and in good antique order. Select oak stocks show fine grain interest and wisps of medullary rays. Deep caramel hues enhance the visual appeal of the form. Wide top surface with relief carved crown moulding to the edges. Pair of inset drawers to the fascia, with wide drawer boxes and prominent foliate cup handles. Tapering baluster support arms with fluted finish and relief carved rear supports host the top. Large open gallery space situated between the top plinth and cabinet base. Two cabinet doors situated within the base, in field panel form. Each door hosting a striking Green Man mask, a staple of Gothic iconography. Right hand door secured with an inset brass lock — in working order, key present. Standing upon a quartet of block feet, beneath a flared apron. Panelled rear adds an appealing level of finish to this fine example. This is a superb large antique buffet from the late Victorian period. Quality carved details and ni...
