Description

Antique 20th century decorative pair of marble top plant stands, a striking and unusual matching pair with an elegant combination of marble and decorative metalwork. Well made and of good quality, they have a distinctive appearance that makes them ideal for displaying plants, vases or decorative pieces. Each stand features a marble top resting above an ornate metal base, creating an attractive contrast and giving the pair plenty of visual appeal. Their solid construction gives them a sturdy feel, while the decorative design ensures they remain an attractive feature even when not in use. A rare and very desirable pair, offering plenty of character and decorative appeal. In good condition, these beautiful plant stands would add an elegant finishing touch to a wide variety of interiors.
