Description

Vintage 20th century pair of bedside cabinets in mahogany, an attractive and practical matching pair with a classic design and useful proportions. Well made and of good quality, they offer a clever combination of storage while maintaining a clean and elegant appearance. Each cabinet features a single door fitted with a knob handle, opening to reveal one internal shelf. The upper section also incorporates a discreet hidden drawer, providing additional storage for smaller personal items. Both stand on plinth bases, giving them a sturdy and neatly finished appearance. The mahogany displays gorgeous grain and colour throughout, with rich tones adding warmth and character to the pair. Their matching design and practical storage make them a very desirable choice for either side of a bed. In good condition, these charming bedside cabinets offer both functionality and timeless style, making them a lovely addition to any bedroom.
