Description

Vintage 20th century farmhouse coffee table in pine, a charming and practical piece with plenty of traditional country character. Well made and of good quality, its simple proportions and substantial construction make it ideal for everyday use within a living room or sitting area. The table stands on beautifully turned legs, creating an attractive farmhouse appearance while providing a sturdy and stable base. A useful lower shelf offers additional space for books, magazines or decorative items, adding further practicality without detracting from the clean design. The pine displays gorgeous natural grain and a rich, warm colour throughout, giving the table plenty of character and visual appeal. Its sturdy construction and timeless farmhouse styling make it a very desirable and versatile piece. Presented in good condition, this attractive pine coffee table would make a perfect addition to any home.
