An unusual opportunity to acquire a signed, dated and personally inscribed early etching by J. R. G. Exley, produced during his formative Royal College of Art period under Sir Frank Short and based upon one of Rembrandt's great etched self-portrait compositions. Artist: James Robert Granville Exley (1878–1967) Medium: Etching on paper Date: 1904 Signed: Yes, in pencil Inscribed: Yes, dated 26 July 1905 Subject: After Rembrandt Period: Royal College of Art / student period CONDITION There is age-related toning, occasional spotting/foxing and old mounting tape residue around the margins, all consistent with the age and history of the sheet. Importantly, the original pencil signature and presentation inscription remain present beneath the plate. Please study all photographs carefully as these form an important part of the condition description. Size 29 x 33 cm (plate size approx. 13 x 17 cm)
