Description

A rare and highly unusual coaster or table stand of very large size. Made of Old Sheffield Plate and dating to circa 1800-1820, but bearing no makers mark. Beautiful arched edging with a convex base, standing on four stylised feet. We are unsure to the exact purpose of this piece, but it may have been a coaster for an oversized wine bottle. Its convex base mirrors the shape of the base of a wine bottle. The condition is good with no dents or splits. There is slight wear to some of the upright spokes and a few scratches to the interior. One small patch of copper bleed to the top rim, revealing a visible seam. Weight approx 1.3kg. Total span approx 30cm Height approx 19.5cm. Diameter at rim approx 20.5cm. Internal rim approx 20cm
